BE-9 Filing Requirements:

A response is required if you are notified by BEA about this survey. A BE-9 survey must be completed in its entirety by U.S. offices, agents, or other representatives of foreign airline operators that transport passengers or freight and express to or from the United States, whose total covered revenues or total covered expenses were $5 million or more during the previous year, or are expected to meet or exceed that amount during the current year. See the General Instructions on page 6 for more information on who must report and reporting requirements.

Authority, Confidentiality, Penalties:

This survey is being conducted under the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108, as amended). The filing of reports is mandatory, and the Act provides that your report to BEA is confidential. Persons who fail to report may be subject to penalties. See page 6 for additional details.

Part III – Foreign Airline Operators’ Revenues

11 Did the foreign airline operator transport any passengers to or from the United States during the reporting period?

¹¹⁰¹³ 1 Yes – Continue to the next question.

2 No – Skip to the next page.

12 What were the foreign airline’s total revenues from flights traveling to or from the United States from baggage fees, rebooking/upgrade fees, and other ancillary services (excluding revenue from in-flight sales) during the reporting period?

Mil. Thous. Dols.

¹¹⁰¹⁴ $ 000

13 In Table 1 below, report the total number of passengers transported to or from the United States during the reporting period, as well as any corresponding in-flight sales revenue. Report values based on the flight’s origin from, or destination to, the specified regions outside the United States.

Allocate values among the three regions identified in column 1 of the table based on the origin or destination of the passengers. The three regions identified are identical with those outlined in the regional airline reporting system established in 14 CFR 241.21(g), as reported to the U.S. Department of Transportation. NOTE: per the regional airline reporting system guidelines, passengers and in-flight sales to passengers originating from, or destined to, Canada are treated as “domestic” and should NOT be reported in the table below.

In column 2, report the number of passengers transported to or from the United States based on the flight’s origin from, or destination to, points outside the United States.

In column 3, report the foreign airline operator’s corresponding revenues from items purchased in-flight, such as food and beverage sales, Wi-Fi, telephone calls, etc. based on the flight’s origin from, or destination to, the specified regions outside of the United States. Do not include onboard duty-free sales in in-flight sales.

IMPORTANT – Report amounts in thousands of U.S. dollars (omitting 000). Round amounts of less than $500 to 0. Do not enter amounts in the shaded portion of each item. EXAMPLE – $324,999.00 should be reported as 325. 50,000 passengers should be reported as 50.

Part IV – Foreign Airline Operators’ Expenses

IMPORTANT – Report amounts below in thousands (omitting 000). Round amounts of less than 500 to 0.

Do not enter amounts in the shaded portion of each item.

EXAMPLE – $324,999.00 should be reported as 325.

14 What were the foreign airline operator’s with-crew aircraft leasing expenses during the reporting period?

Only report with-crew airline leasing expenses paid to U.S.-based entities, regardless of where the expenses are incurred. Do not include expenses for aircraft leased without crew (operated by you), or leasing of aircraft from entities headquartered outside the United States. Do not include financial-type leases. A lease is classified as a financial lease if there is intent to eventually take possession of the good. If the intent is just to rent the good for a limited period, this is classified as an operating lease.

	Mil.	Thous.	Dols.
11019	1		000
	$		000

15 In Table 2 below, report the foreign airline operator’s expenses according to the item descriptions listed. Only report expenses incurred in the United States and during the reporting period specified in Question 2 of the survey.

Item 1 — Include only expenses for fuel and oil purchased from U.S. suppliers (see the definition for United States on page 6).

Item 2 — Include wages and salaries paid in the United States to personnel.

Item 3 — Include agents’ and brokers’ fees and commissions for arrangement of freight and passenger transportation.

Item 4 — Include expenses for aircraft repair, maintenance, storage, and cleaning; handling services for freight and passengers; and other airport terminal services. Aircraft modification and factory-type aircraft overhauls should be included in item 5.

Item 5 — Include all other expenses, such as port and landing fees; air traffic control services paid to the U.S. Government; aircraft modification and factory-type aircraft overhauls; and costs incurred in the operation of general headquarters, divisional offices, airline ticket offices, and all other costs for operation of freight and passenger facilities located in the United States. These costs should cover, for example, catering, crew expenses (hotel and per diem), rent, utilities, legal fees, telephone and other communications equipment, and rental of tangible property except aircraft.

Exclude expenditures abroad for which payments are made in the United States, that is, payments to petroleum companies in the United States for fuel and oil loaded on aircraft in foreign countries.

Exclude the following: administrative expenses charged to U.S. operations but not actually incurred in the United States; capital charges and transfers, such as payment of interest or principal on loans; depreciation on aircraft and ground equipment; and payments for purchases exported from the United States (such as aircraft parts and complete aircraft) for which Shippers Export Declarations were filed with the U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

Table 2: Expenses Incurred in the United States

Item No.	Expense Type			Amounts (Report in thousands)
1	Fuel and oil	20004	1	$ 000
2	Wages and salaries paid to employees in the United States	20005	1	$ 000
3	Agents’ and brokers’ fees and commissions	20006	1	$ 000
4	Aircraft handling and terminal services	20007	1	$ 000
5	All other expenses incurred in the United States	20008	1	$ 000
	Total expenses	20003	1	$ 000

QUARTERLY SURVEY OF FOREIGN AIRLINE OPERATORS'
REVENUES AND EXPENSES IN THE UNITED STATES
FORM BE-9 GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Public reporting burden for this BE-9 report is estimated to average 6 hours per response. This burden includes time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate to Director, Bureau of Economic Analysis (BE-1), 4600 Silver Hill Rd., Washington DC 20233 and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project 0608-0068, Washington, DC 20503.

Purpose — Reports are required to obtain quarterly data for use in estimating the international transactions accounts of the United States.

Authority — This survey is being conducted under the authority of the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108, as amended—hereinafter “the Act”), and the filing of reports is mandatory under Section 5(b)(2) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 3104). Regulations for the survey may be found in 15 CFR Part 801.

Penalties — Whoever fails to report shall be subject to a civil penalty and to injunctive relief commanding such person to comply, or both. These civil penalties are subject to inflationary adjustments. Those adjustments are found in 15 CFR Part 6.4. Whoever willfully fails to report shall be fined and, if an individual, may be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violations, upon conviction, may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment or both (See 22 U.S.C. 3105). Notwithstanding the above, a U.S. person is not subject to any penalty for failure to report if a valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number is not displayed on the form; such a number (0608-0068) is displayed at the top of the first page of this form.

Confidentiality — The Act provides that your report to this Bureau is CONFIDENTIAL and may be used only for analytical or statistical purposes. Without your prior written permission, the information filed in your report CANNOT be presented in a manner that allows it to be individually identified. Your report CANNOT be used for purposes of taxation, investigation, or regulation. Per the Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2015, your data are protected from Cybersecurity risks through security monitoring of the BEA information systems. Copies retained in your files are immune from legal process.

Who is to Report and General Coverage

Who must report — A response is required from each U.S. office, agent, or other representative of a foreign airline operator that was notified by BEA about the survey.

a. A complete report is required from each U.S. office, agent, or other representative of a foreign airline operator that transports passengers or freight and express to or from the United States, and had total covered revenues OR total covered expenses that were $5 million or more during the previous year or are expected to exceed that amount during the current year.

- b. A foreign airline operator that had total covered revenues AND total covered expenses below the reporting threshold must complete pages 1-3 and is only required to report total revenues and expenses in Question 10. The foreign airline operator also has the option of providing additional information, on a voluntary basis, on pages 4 and 5.
- c. A U.S. airline operator that had no transactions of the types covered must complete pages 1-3.

How to report — Use this form to report revenues and expenses in accordance with the instructions on pages 4 and 5. Report all amounts in thousands ($324,999.00 should be reported as 325. A passenger count of 750,000 should be reported as 750.).

Estimates — If actual figures are not available, supply estimates and label them as such.

Where to send reports — To file a report electronically, see our website at www.bea.gov/efile for details.
